SOCIETY.

SMITH-TADLOCK.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hancock, of Scotland Neck, was the scene of a pretty marriage Thursday morning, the 29, at nine o'clock, when Miss Grace Dexter Tadlock became the bride of Mr. William Presley Smith, of Suffolk, Va.

Rev. W. G. Lowe, of Henderson, cousin of the bride, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, J. H. Tadlock, of Windsor, wore a suit of dark blue broadcloth with fur trimmings, hat and shoes to harmonize. She carried brides roses and sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Miss Verna Mae Mizell, and only attendant wore a dress of purple satin with cut steel trimming, and carried white carnations tied with white tulle.

Little Miss Mamie Rhea Hancock, niece of the bride, was the ring bearer. She wore a dress of white organdy with blue ribbons, and carried the ring in a calla lily.

The bridegroom was supported by his brother-in-law as best man, Mr. Hatcher Williams, of Suffolk, Va.

Miss Edna Sewell, of Windsor, sang Schubert's serenade. She wore a dress of dark blue charmeuse and carried white carnations tied with white tulle.

The wedding music was played by Miss Elizabeth Tadlock, sister of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on their bridal trip to Washington, and upon their return will be at home near Suffolk, Va.

An informal reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hancock on Wednesday evening in honor of the bridal party and out of town guests, which included Mr. and Mrs. Z. Turner and daughter, of Suffolk; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tadlock and son, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher Williams and sister, Miss Ethel Smith, of Suffolk; Miss Edna Sewell and Miss Verna Mae Mizelle, of Windsor; Mr. F. R. Lowe, of Chester, Va.; Mr. W. P. Lowe, of Woodard, and Rev. W. G. Lowe, of Henderson, N. C.

Mr. H. H. Chittum, of Lexington, Va., is here demonstrating the South Bend malleable range, and will remain in the city until Tuesday next.

Mr. J. C. Wheeler who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Brickhouse Jones left this morning for his home in Justice.

Mr. R. F. Coleman was a huntsman yesterday. He and others spent yesterday in the woods, and he bagged nine birds, some rabbits and a sage hen.

Mr. Ralph Morgan and Dr. David Harrower returned yesterday to their home at Worcester, Mass., after spending some time the guests of Mr. W. P. Darden, of Spring Hill.

Mr. John Hall, of Warrenton, an old Confederate veteran and known here quite well, died at his home last Tuesday. The obituary will appear later in The Commonwealth.

CORRECTION.

In the announcement of the wedding of Mrs. A. C. Peterson and Mr. Peyton Keel it was stated a supper would be given upon the return of the bride and groom. This might have led some friends of the couple to suppose that invitations had been sent out and a host of friends invited, so that those who did not receive such invitations might have thought they were slighted.

The fact is there was no arrangement on the part of Mrs. Keel, or her large number of friends, to celebrate by any elaborate supper, nor was there a reception held, though it is probable, had the weather held good, a number of callers would have congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Keel last night.
